Japan's DJ Nobu is one of a kind; a DJ with no fixed style but instead a very real ability to draw on a wide world of music and cook up his own unique sound spaces. He is something of a cult figure for those who know with decades of experience, all of which are distilled at his acclaimed party 'Future Terror', his label 'Bitta' and his few choice production outings.

All of this has slowly but surely turned Nobu from being one of Japan's, to one of the world's most in demand selectors who is famously flexible and ever evolving.

In February 2021, he started his NTS Radio residency (bi-monthly) where he digs deep into various forms of inspiring music.

Recent releases include an EP on Non-Series and Swedish label Kvalia as well as a contribution to '100 years of Columbia' charity compilation.
