Japan's DJ Nobu is one of a kind; a DJ with no fixed style but instead a very real ability to draw on a wide world of music and cook up his own unique sound spaces. He is something of a cult figure for those who know with decades of experience, all of which are distilled at his acclaimed party 'Future Terror', his label 'Bitta' and his few choice production outings.

All of this has slowly but surely turned Nobu from being one of Japan's, to one of the world's most in demand selectors who is famously flexible and ever evolving.
