SYNC. (Atom™ & Peter Van Hoesen)

Website

SYNC. is a hybrid sonic rollercoaster in the truest sense of the word, combining intricate live programming and improvisation with timed DJ interventions.

In January 2018 Peter Van Hoesen and Atom™ performed a one-off hybrid live show at Unit Tokyo for Mindgames. Performing on stage together for the first time, they jammed for nearly eight hours straight. Needless to say that the deep connection between both artists became immediately apparent. The idea was born to further develop this live collaboration with a number of select shows at favorite venues. 2019 then, right before the pandemic, SYNC. played some 4-6 hours sets at The Pickle Factory (London), Concrete (Paris), Berghain (Berlin) and Technoon (Brussels). After the global forced hiatus, both musicians are now back and just presented an updated set at Basilar (Portugal), Nitsa (Barcelona) and Bassiani (Tbilisi), with a promising 2023 tour scheduled!
